FIRST FEATURE FILM

CALL FOR ENTRIES REC

FIRST FEATURE FILM COMPETITION

The REC Festival is a platform to promote films of emergent creators. From 2004 the section “Opera Prima” (Film Debut) presents feature films without commercial screening in Spain. New filmmakers all over the world are welcome to submit their works before our deadline, march 1st, 2010.

Conditions

You can submit works made in any shooting format. Films have to be a first or second director’s feature film (fiction or documentary), finished between 2008 and 2010, without Spanish commercial screening. The competition is international, authors all over the world are welcome. The screening format will be the original one, 35 mm or digital. The competitive section of Opera Prima has a prize to the Best Film of 5.000 Euros. The jury also can signal a honorific mention if it believes it timely, without economical amount.

The prize will be deliver to the company that has submitted the film in the Festival, with independence that it is a distributor or production company.
